Dear Col

I have been here for the past four weeks acting in the Capacity of a Judge, Group 97 on Gold and Silver Ware during which time I have my Eye on the awards medals, no one here appears to know anything about it. The Hon J. Boyd Thatcher knows - but it is impossible to get ^{an interview} with him, as he is so extra busy at this time. If it is not contrary to your official orders, I would like you to let me know if you have commenced cutting the Die, I met Mr George Paley to day, and he informs me he will leave here on next Wednesday for home, I wish it was so I could return with him for I am worn out -

I remain yours truly

Dear Col.,

I have been here for the past four weeks acting in the capacity of a judge, group 97 on gold and silver wares during which time I have my eye on the awards medals. No one here appears to know anything about it. The Hon. J. Boyd Thatcher knows, but it is impossible to get an interview with him, as he is so extra busy at this time. If it is not contrary to your official codes, I would like you to let me now if you have commenced cutting the Die. I met Mr. George Saley today, and he imposes me he will leave here on next Wednesday for home. I wish it was so I could return with Harris for I am worn out. I remain yours truly.
